ELIZABETH PATTERSON

CHORUS

For summer June is old Va' give us, then the me-ting time is When the sun is hot and the air is blowing And all the birds are in the trees Ev'ry day a girl den gets Ev'ry night a mel'ow moon And I want you with me

Would You Care Little Girl?

(If You Knew)

This is the song destined to be the "Tipperary" of America. It is full of snap and sparkle that makes it a winner. It takes a love song of real heart sentiment that expresses the individual's wishes to the "ONLY LITTLE GIRL," and when you hear this song you will say, "This is the song we have been looking for." Get this melody into your heart and mind and you will never forget it. The words speak for themselves. It is a great one-step

In Virginia When It's June

When you read the words contained in the title of this song, your mind's eye will picture cloudless summer skies of blue, blossoms and flowers in abundance, and you will almost feel the soft, balmy breeze of the Southland fanning your cheek in tuneful rhythm, and when you play over the few bars of the chorus printed here, you will be eager to get a complete copy from your nearest dealer. It will be one of the most treasured copies in your collection. It is a delightful fox trot.
